

Release News!

GoldFax 7.0

GoldFax 7.0 has been running in production at specific customers. It has been tested in many environments and is ready for release.

If your annual maintenance is current then please contact GoldFax technical support for information. Professional services for upgrade assistance are available at additional cost.

- New environments!
Windows Server 2008, Exchange 2007 for email, GoldFax client for Windows Vista and Windows 7
- Latest Brooktrout drivers including the SR140 FoIP - Fax over IP capability and the Dialogic Media Gateway
- .NET architecture, Web services for all interfaces
- Sharp OSA III MFP support
- XEROX MFPs now supported by GoldFax FolderMon
- Web client – receive faxes, multiple receive folders
- Send and receive fax archiving into folders
- Server based user .ini profiles
- Production applications can send faxes and/or emails of fax images
- GFAttach printer to add more fax pages to any fax in process
- XML output of metadata on faxes received into folders
- Faxes can be automatically routed into multiple folders
- Unique file name mask per routing folder
- Actions (notifications) for drag and drop activity between GoldFax folders
- User parameters can have default descriptions and values
- Separate fax pages into separate PDF documents and TIF images
- Transmission reports can be emailed (PDF or TIF) or printed by groups with option to show message body
- New installation process – faster and simpler